

HALAL STATEMENT

Floritech takes every precaution to manufacture and provide safe and functional products to the cosmetics and personal care industry.

Floritech's finished products do not contain any animal-derived materials (e.g. milk, whey, lactose derivatives, lanolin, beeswax). Floritech products are not produced at manufacturing facilities that process animal-derived products, nor are they processed with equipment that has come into contact with any ingredients of animal origin. Animal-derived processing aids are not used during the manufacture of Floritech products. All Floritech products are stored separately from products of animal origin or products containing such ingredients at all times.

Alcohol, in particular isopropyl alcohol and ethyl alcohol, are utilized to manufacture select Floritech products. The alcohol used to manufacture these products is not extracted from grapes, dates, or the fermentation of sugars from cane. Rather, the alcohol is synthetically manufactured and is not present in finished Floritech products above detectable levels. All Floritech products are free from intoxicating potential.

The following Floritech products are manufactured with synthetic alcohol:

- FLORAESTERS[®] IPJ (manufactured with isopropyl alcohol)
- FLORAMAC[®] 10 (manufactured with ethyl alcohol)
